DECISION

CASTAÑEDA, JR., J.:

THE CASE

Before this Court is a Petition for Review filed by Maxima Machineries, Inc. on November 27, 2015, praying for the issuance of tax credit certificate (TCC) in the amount of ₱22,242,848.81 representing unutilized input value-added tax (VAT) arising from its zero-rated transactions for the period covering the first quarter of fiscal year (FY) ending March 31, 2014. gc

¹ Section 1, Rule VIII of the Internal Rules of the Court of Tax Appeals: "Section 1. Case assigned to a justice for study and report. --- Every Division Case, whether appealed or original, assigned to a Justice for study and report shall be retained by him even if he is transferred to another Division. The Justice, though transferred, shall write the report with the other members of the Division to which the case was originally submitted for decision. Their Division shall be called Special (No.) Division."

THE FACTS

Petitioner Maxima Machineries, Inc. is a domestic corporation duly organized under and by virtue of the laws of the Philippines, with principal business address at 871 Quezon Avenue, Bgy. Sta. Cruz, Quezon City. It is a VAT-registered taxpayer, with Tax Identification No. (TIN) 006-618-023-000.²

As stated in its Amended Articles of Incorporation,³ its primary purpose is:

"To buy, sell, barter, trade, lease out, manufacture, import, export or otherwise acquire, dispose of, and deal with any kind of goods, wares, and merchandise such as spare parts or replacement parts and/or complete assemblies of agricultural, industrial or commercial machineries, automobiles, buses, trucks, tractors or other motor vehicles and/or related machineries and equipment of every kind and description and to carry on such business as manufacturers, wholesaler, importers and exporters, except the manufacture of food, drugs and cosmetics. xxx"

On the other hand, respondent is the duly appointed Commissioner of the Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR) who has the power to decide disputed assessments, refunds of internal revenue taxes, fees or other charges, penalties imposed in relation thereto or other matters arising under the National Internal Revenue Code (NIRC) or other laws or portions thereof administered by the BIR. He holds office at the BIR National Office Building, Agham Road, Diliman, Quezon City.

On July 22, 2013, petitioner filed with the BIR its Quarterly VAT Return for the period covering April 1, 2013 to June 30, 2013 (first quarter of FY ending March 31, 2014).⁴ Petitioner claims that it made zero-rated sales amounting to ₱260,115,930.50, and that for the current period, petitioner made domestic purchases of goods other than capital goods and domestic purchases of services in the total amount of ₱893,497,256.47; in which it generated input taxes in the total amount of ₱107,219,670.78. Petitioner also points out that for the period April 1, 2013 to June 30, 2013, the accumulated excess input VAT credit of petitioner from its domestic purchases of goods other than capital goods, importation of goods other than capital goods, and domestic purchases of services that is allocated to its VAT zero-rated transactions is in the aggregate amount of ₱22,242,848.81, which has not been applied against output tax in the succeeding quarters/years.⁵

On June 30, 2015, petitioner filed with the BIR, through the Large Taxpayers Service-Regular LT Audit Division I, an administrative claim for the issuance of tax credit certificate totaling ₱22,242,848.81 representing excess input VAT that is allocable to its VAT zero-rated sales for the first quarter of FY 2014.⁶

Petitioner alleges that respondent did not act on its administrative application for refund or tax credit, and with the expiration of the 120-day period under Section 112(C) of the NIRC of 1997, as amended, on October 28, 2015, petitioner filed the instant Petition for Review on November 27, 2015, which is within 30 days from October 28, 2015.

On December 28, 2015, respondent filed a Motion for Extension of Time to File Answer,⁷ which the Court granted in an Order⁸ dated January 5, 2016.

On February 1, 2016, respondent filed an Answer,⁹ containing the following arguments and Special and Affirmative Defenses:

"4. As a matter of course, a claim for refund is subject to investigation as it involves removal of accrued revenue from the coffers of the Government. It has been held by the Supreme Court that a claim for refund is not ipso facto granted because the Commissioner of Internal Revenue still has to investigate and ascertain the veracity of the claim.

5. Respondent submits that petitioner failed to demonstrate that the amount of ₱22,242,848.81 which is the subject of the case at bar was erroneously or illegally collected. Taxes remitted to the BIR are presumed to have been made in the regular course of business and in accordance with provisions of law. gc

⁷ Docket (Vol. I), pp. 317-321.

⁸ Docket (Vol. I), p. 323.

⁹ Docket (Vol. I), pp. 324-337.

6. Before the instant Petition for Review should be given due course, petitioner should prove that it submitted the relevant pieces of documents to substantiate its claim and had observed the procedure laid down in Section 112 (C) of the National Internal Revenue Code (NIRC) of 1997, as amended, which reads:

'(C) Period within which Refund or Tax Credit of Input Taxes shall be Made. – In proper cases, the Commissioner shall grant a refund or issue the tax credit certificate for creditable input taxes within one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of submission of complete documents in support of the application filed in accordance with Subsection (A) hereof.

7. In case of full or partial denial of the claim for tax refund or tax credit, or the failure on the part of the Commissioner to act on the application within the period prescribed above, the taxpayer affected may, within thirty (30) days from the receipt of the decision denying the claim or after the expiration of one hundred twenty (120) day-period, appeal the decision or the unacted claim with the Court of Tax Appeals.

8. Clearly, the law requires the submission of complete documents in support of the application filed with the Bureau of Internal Revenue before the 120-day audit period shall apply, and before the taxpayer could avail of judicial remedies as provided for in the law, petitioner's failure to comply with the duly mandated legal requirements in such claims for refund/tax credit warranted the denial by inaction of the administrative claim.

9. Furthermore, Section 112 (C) of the 1997 NIRC clearly states that there should be a prior administrative claim filed with respondent before judicial resort can be had in the Court of Tax Appeals, where relevant documents must be submitted by the taxpayer to support its claim for refund. Failure on the part of the taxpayer to file the administrative claim and submit relevant documents on administrative level, makes the administrative claim for tax refund or credit pro-forma and shall be construed as if no administrative claim was filed at all.

10. In case such as this, before judicial inquiry into the issue of whether taxpayers, in general, are entitled to a refund/tax credit under substantive law may be considered, they have an initial burden to discharge. They must prove that they complied with all the administrative requirements continuing up to judicial review. In other words, before trial de novo proceeds and disposes of the issue of refund entitlement under substantive law, it must first be proved that there was procedural compliance in pursuing the administrative claim leading to the appellate proceedings. As stated by the Honorable Supreme Court:

'Petitioner's contention that non-compliance with Revenue Regulations 3-88 could not have adversely affected its case in the CTA indicates a failure on its part to appreciate the nature of the proceedings in that court. First, a judicial claim for refund or tax credit in the CTA is by no means an original action but rather an appeal by way of petition for review of a previous, unsuccessful administrative claim. Therefore, as in every appeal or petition for review, a petitioner has to convince the appellate court that the quasi-judicial agency a quo did not have any reason to deny it claims. In this case, it was necessary for petitioner to show the CTA not only that it was entitled under substantive law to the grant of its claims but also that it satisfied all the documentary and evidentiary requirements for an administrative claim for refund or tax credits. Second, cases filed in the CTA are litigated de novo. Thus, a petitioner should prove every minute aspect of its case by presenting, formally offering and submitting its evidence to the CTA. Since it is crucial for a petitioner in a judicial claim for refund or tax credit to show that its administrative claim should have been granted in the first place, part of the evidence to be submitted to the CTA must necessarily include whatever is required for the successful prosecution of an administrative claim.' (Emphasis and underscoring supplied)

11. Petitioner failed to substantiate its claim for refund/issuance of tax credit certificate in the amount of ₱22,242,848.81 representing unutilized input taxes that is allocable to its VAT zero-rated transactions as declared in its Quarterly VAT Return for the period April 1, 2013 to June 30, 2013 for its Fiscal Year ending March 31, 2014.

12. The implementing rule for these complete documents required by law is RMO No. 53-98. Annex B-1 of said RMO lists all the required documents as follows:

XXX

XXX

13. In the case entitled Commissioner of Internal Revenue vs. Rosemarie Acosta, the Honorable Supreme Court had the occasion to say: gr

'xxx Noteworthy, the requirements under Section 230 (now Section 204) for refund claims are as follows:

1. A written claim for refund or tax credit must be filed by the taxpayer with the Commissioner;
2. The claim for refund must be a categorical demand for reimbursement;
3. The claim for refund or tax credit must be filed, or the suit or proceeding therefor must be commenced in court within two (2) years from date of payment of the tax or penalty regardless of any supervening cause.

In our view, the law is clear. A claimant must first file a written claim for refund, categorically demanding recovery of overpaid taxes with the CIR, before resorting to an action in court. This obviously is intended, first, to afford the CIR an opportunity to correct the action of subordinate officers; and second, to notify the government that such taxes have been questioned, and the notice should then be borne in mind in estimating the revenue available for expenditure xxx.' (Emphasis and understanding supplied)

14. In the present case, petitioner failed to submit all the necessary documents needed for the application of its VAT refund.

15. The purpose of requiring the filing of the administrative claim for refund/tax credit and submission of supporting documents relevant to a claim for tax refund/credit is to give the administrative agency concerned the opportunity to ascertain the veracity and validity of the claim. This is the very essence, the very substance of the doctrine of exhaustion of administrative remedies. The doctrine rests upon the presumption that the administrative body, board, or officer, if given the chance to correct its mistake or error, may amend its decision on a given matter and decide it properly. Thus, non-compliance with a condition precedent renders the Petition for Review dismissible.

16. In this case, the revenue officers who audited petitioner's claim for refund made the following findings:

'To validate their claims, verification of the import entry and internal revenue declaration (IERD), local gc purchases invoices of goods and services disclosed the following audit findings, to wit:

- a. The summary of importation as revised totaled ₱99,175,781.58. However, the IEIRD attached was not in sequence with the schedule, various copies were not readable, the computation of the input tax differs from the actual input tax as shown per sampling;
- b. The original attachment of the application showed loose photocopies for the domestic purchases.

In as much as the subject taxpayer still failed to submit the complete import entry and internal revenue declaration, complete sales invoices and official receipts in sequence with the required schedule, the revenue officer has no other recourse but to deny the claim. A letter of denial will be sent to the subject taxpayer. Considering that the subject taxpayer also filed a 'Petition for Review with the CTA'

17. Based on the above findings of the revenue officers who conducted the audit, they recommended for the denial of the tax credit/refund for failure to submit the additional documents material to the granting of the tax credit/refund.

18. The failure of petitioner to substantiate its claim for refund before the office of the respondent and the filing of the instant petition before this Honorable Court deprived respondent of the opportunity to fully exercise her function to decide claims for refund, correct, modify or affirm the findings of her subordinates. It must be remembered, that in the case of Jariol vs. Commission on Elections, the Supreme Court reasoned that a party must not merely initiate the prescribed administrative procedure to obtain relief, the party concerned must pursue this relief until the appropriate conclusion takes place before seeking judicial intervention in order to give the administrative body an opportunity to decide the matter by itself correctly and prevent unnecessary and premature resort to the court.

19. The power to tax is the most effective instrument to raise needed revenues to finance and support the myriad of activities of the government for the delivery of basic services essential to the promotion of the general welfare and enhancement of peace, progress and prosperity of the people. Consequently, any delay in implementing tax measures would be to the detriment of the public. It is for this reason that claims for refund are required to be done within certain time frames. Je

20. Exemptions from taxation are highly disfavored in law and he who claims exemption must be able to justify his claim by the clearest grant of organic or statutory law. An exemption from the common burden cannot be permitted to exist upon vague implications.

21. In an action for refund, the burden of proof is on the taxpayer to establish its right to refund, and failure to sustain the burden is fatal to the claim for refund. Hence, a taxpayer is charged with the heavy burden of proving that he has complied with and satisfied all the statutory and administrative requirements to be entitled to the tax refund. Failure to comply therewith warrants a dismissal of the taxpayer's claim for refund. Respondent humbly submits that petitioner failed to establish its right to refund.

22. It can never be emphasized enough that in this jurisdiction tax refunds/credits are in the nature of tax exemptions, hence, laws relating to them call for a strict application against the claimant. As held by the Honorable Supreme Court:

'Tax refunds are in the nature of tax exemptions, and are to be construed strictissimi juris against the entity claiming the same. Thus, the burden of proof rests upon the taxpayer to establish by sufficient and competent evidence, its entitlement to a claim for refund.'

23. Taxes collected are presumed to be in accordance with laws and regulations.

24. Claims for refund are construed strictly against the claimant for the same partake of the nature of exemption from taxation and as such, they are looked upon with disfavor. Basic is the rule that tax refunds are regarded as tax exemptions that are in derogation of the sovereign authority and are to be construed in strictissimi juris against the person or entity claiming the exemption. The law does not look with favor on tax exemptions and that he who would seek to be thus privileged must justify it by words too plain to be mistaken and too categorical to be misinterpreted.

25. Based on the foregoing, petitioner's claim for refund has no basis in fact and in law. Thus, the instant petition should be denied for lack of merit."

On February 9, 2016, the Court set the pre-trial conference of the instant case on March 17, 2016 and ordered both parties to submit their respective Pre-Trial Briefs.¹⁰ Respondent submitted his Pre-Trial Brief¹¹ on March 11, 2016; while petitioner submitted its Pre-Trial Brief¹² on April 11, 2016.

The parties then filed their Joint Stipulation of Facts and Issues¹³ on April 29, 2016, which was subsequently approved by this Court in the Pre-Trial Order¹⁴ promulgated on May 10, 2016.

On July 13, 2016, upon motion of petitioner pursuant to Rules 12 and 13 of the Revised Rules of the Court of Tax Appeals, this Court commissioned Mr. Neil U. Sison as the Independent Certified Public Accountant (ICPA) for the case.¹⁵

Petitioner, aside from the ICPA, presented as witnesses Ms. Marlene D. Manuel and Mr. Yusuke Yamada, petitioner's Finance Officer and Chief Finance Officer, respectively.

Thereafter petitioner filed its Formal Offer of Evidence¹⁶ on October 27, 2016. On January 12, 2017, the Court resolved to admit all of petitioner's exhibits except for Exhibits "P-8", "P-28", "P-34" and "P-41", for failure of the exhibits formally offered and identified to correspond with the documents actually marked; Exhibits "P-55" and "P-72, for failure to present the originals for comparison; and Exhibits "P-78-J-1" to "P-78-J-2", "P-78-P-141", "P-78-P-755", "P-78-P-1512", "P-78-P-2069", "P-78-P-2323", "P-78-P-2421", "P-78-P-2462", "P-78-V-9", "P-78-V-15", "P-78-V-24", "P-78-V-25", "P-78-X-162", "P-78-AD-2", "P-78-AD-3", "P-78-AD-217", "P-78-AI-204", "P-78-AI-205", "P-78-AL-190", "P-78-AL-191", "P-78-AQ-2", "P-78-AR-9", "P-78-AR-10", "P-78-AU-3", "P-78-AU-6", "P-78-AU-7", "P-78-AU-9", "P-78-AW-12" to "P-78-AW-118", "P-78-BA-928", "P-78-BA-1025", "P-78-BA-1315", "P-78-BA-1367", "P-78-BA-1700", "P-78-BA-1701", "P-78-BA-1702", "P-78-BA-1707", "P-78-BA-1708", "P-78-BA-1863", "P-78-BA-1874" to "P-78-BA-1886", "P-78-BA-1888", "P-78-BA-1996", "P-78-BA-1997", "P-78-BA-1998", "P-78-BB-363", "P-78-BC-1" to "P-78-BC-7", "P-78-BC-9" to "P-78-BC-12", "P-78-BC-30" to "P-78-BC-41", "P-78-BC-43" to "P-

On February 8, 2017, petitioner filed a Supplemental ICPA Report.¹⁸

Petitioner filed a Motion for Reconsideration to the Resolution dated January 12, 2017¹⁹ on February 17, 2017.

During the hearing on February 13, 2017 for the presentation of respondent's lone witness, Revenue Officer Felina Guimbao, counsel for respondent orally offered Exhibits "R-1", "R-2", "R-3", "R-4", "R-5", "R-6", "R-7", and "R-7-1". The Court admitted all of respondent's evidence, there being no objections interposed by petitioner's counsel.²⁰

In the Resolution²¹ dated September 8, 2017, the Court set a hearing on October 11, 2017 for the identification of the Supplemental ICPA Report filed on February 8, 2017, subject to the payment of a fine of ₱5,000.00, and held in abeyance the resolution of petitioner's Motion for Reconsideration to the Resolution dated January 12, 2017.

After petitioner's presentation of additional evidence on October 11, 2017, petitioner filed its Supplemental Formal Offer of Evidence²² on October 18, 2017.

In the Resolution²³ dated November 28, 2017, the Court partially granted petitioner's Motion for Reconsideration to the Resolution dated January 12, 2017. Accordingly, the Court admitted petitioner's Exhibits "P-8", "P-28", "P-34", "P-41", "P-55", "P-72", "P-78-J-1" to "P-78-J-2", "P-78-P-141", "P-78-P-1512", "P-78-P-2069", "P-78-P-2323", "P-78-P-2421", "P-78-P-2462", "P-78-V-9", "P-78-V-15", "P-78-V-24", "P-78-V-25", "P-78-X-162", "P-78-AD-2", "P-78-AD-3", "P-78-AD-217", "P-78-AI-204", "P-78-AI-205", "P-78-AL-190", "P-78-AL-191", "P-78-AQ-2", "P-78-AR-9", "P-78-AR-10", "P-78-AU-3", "P-78-AU-6", "P-78-AU-7", "P-78-AU-9", "P-78-BA-1315", "P-78-BA-1367", "P-78-BA-1700", "P-

Thereafter, petitioner filed its Memorandum²⁴ on June 25, 2018; while respondent filed his Memorandum²⁵ on February 1, 2018. Subsequently, in the Resolution²⁶ dated February 6, 2018, the Court declared the instant case submitted for decision.

THE ISSUE

The parties submitted the following issue²⁷ for the Court's resolution:

"Whether Petitioner is entitled for the issuance of tax credit certificate in the amount of ₱22,242,848.81 representing its excess and/or unutilized input VAT allocable to its VAT zero-rated sales for the period April 1, 2013 to June 30, 2013 (1st Quarter of fiscal year ending March 31, 2014)."

THE COURT'S RULING

Pertinent to the resolution of the case at bench are Sections 112(A) and (C) of the NIRC of 1997, as amended, which read:

"SEC. 112. Refunds or Tax Credits of Input Tax. –

(A) Zero-Rated or Effectively Zero-Rated Sales. – Any VAT-registered person, whose sales are zero-rated or effectively zero-rated may, within two (2) years after the close of the taxable quarter

XXX

(C) Period within which Refund or Tax Credit of Input Taxes shall be Made. – In proper cases, the Commissioner shall grant a refund or issue the tax credit certificate for creditable input taxes within one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of submission of complete documents in support of the application filed in accordance with Subsection (A) hereof.

In case of full or partial denial of the claim for tax refund or tax credit, or the failure on the part of the Commissioner to act on the application within the period prescribed above, the taxpayer affected may, within thirty (30) days from the receipt of the decision denying the claim or after the expiration of the one hundred twenty day-period, appeal the decision or the unacted claim with the Court of Tax Appeals."

Pursuant thereto, in order to be entitled to a refund or tax credit of unutilized input VAT attributable to zero-rated or effectively zero-rated sales, it is imperative to prove the following:

1. that the taxpayer is VAT-registered;
2. that the claim for refund was filed within the prescriptive period both in the administrative and judicial levels;
3. that there must be zero-rated or effectively zero-rated sales;
4. that input taxes were incurred or paid;
5. that the input taxes due or paid were attributable to zero-rated sales or effectively zero-rated sales; and

6. that the input taxes were not applied against any output VAT liability.

First Requisite: Petitioner is a VAT-registered entity.

Petitioner is registered with the Bureau of Internal Revenue as a VAT taxpayer with Taxpayer Identification No. 006-618-023-000, as evidenced by its BIR Certificate of Registration.²⁸

Second Requisite: Petitioner timely filed its administrative and judicial claims.

Pursuant to the above-quoted Section 112(A) of 1997, as amended, the administrative claim for the issuance of a TCC or refund of input VAT must be filed with the BIR within two (2) years after the close of the taxable quarter when the zero-rated or effectively zero-rated sales were made.

The present claim covers the first quarter of FY ending March 31, 2014, which closed on June 30, 2013. Counting two years therefrom, petitioner had until June 30, 2015 within which to file its administrative claim for refund or issuance of TCC. Clearly, petitioner's administrative claim²⁹ was timely filed on June 30, 2015.

As to the timeliness of petitioner's judicial appeal, Section 112(C) of the NIRC of 1997, as amended, provides that respondent has 120 days from the date of the submission of the complete documents in support of the application for refund or tax credit within which to grant or deny the claim. In case of full or partial denial by respondent, the taxpayer's recourse is to file an appeal before this Court within 30 days from receipt of the decision of respondent. However, if after the 120-day period, respondent fails to act on the application for refund or tax credit, the remedy of the taxpayer is to appeal the inaction of respondent to this Court within 30 days.

²⁸ Docket (Vol. II), Exhibit "P-3", p. 955.

²⁹ Docket (Vol. II), Exhibits "P-52", "P-53", and "P-54", pp. 1099-1119.

Accordingly, from the filing of petitioner's administrative claim, together with the supporting documents, on June 30, 2015, respondent had 120 days or until October 28, 2015 to act on the said claim. Considering that respondent failed to act on the said claim within the 120-day period, petitioner had 30 days or until November 27, 2015 within which to file a judicial claim before this Court. Evidently, petitioner's judicial appeal by way of a Petition for Review was, likewise, timely filed on November 27, 2015.

Third Requisite: Petitioner is engaged in zero-rated or effectively
zero-rated sales.

As stated in its Amended Articles of Incorporation, petitioner's primary purpose is to buy, sell, barter, trade, lease out, manufacture, import, export or otherwise acquire, dispose of, and deal with any kind of goods, wares and merchandise such as spare parts or replacement parts and/or complete assemblies of agricultural, industrial or commercial machineries, automobiles, buses, trucks, tractors or other motor vehicles and/or related machineries and equipment of every kind and description and to carry on such business as manufacturers, wholesalers, importers and exporters, except the manufacture of food, drugs and cosmetics.³⁰

Petitioner maintains that its sales of goods and services to entities registered with the Philippine Economic Zone Authority (PEZA), Subic Bay Metropolitan Authority (SBMA), Clark Development Authority (CDA), Cagayan Economic Zone Authority (CEZA), Clark Development Corporation (CDC) and Board of Investments (BOI) during the period covering April 1, 2013 to June 30, 2013 are subject to zero percent (0%) VAT, pursuant to Sections 106(A)(2)(a)(3), (5) and (c) and 108(B)(3) of the NIRC of 1997, as amended.

The pertinent provisions of Sections 106(A)(2)(a)(3), (5) and (c) and 108(B)(3) of the NIRC of 1997, as amended, state: gr

(c) Any provision of existing law, rules or regulations to the contrary notwithstanding, no taxes, local and national, shall be imposed on business establishments operating within the Zone. xxx"

Since the Ecozone is viewed as a foreign territory by legal fiction, sales of goods and services made by a VAT-registered person in the Philippine customs territory to an entity registered and operating within the Ecozone are considered exports to a foreign country subject to 0% VAT. This was elucidated by the Supreme Court in the case of Commissioner of Internal Revenue vs. Toshiba Information Equipment (Phils.), Inc.,³¹ to wit:

"This Court agrees, however, that PEZA-registered enterprises, which would necessarily be located within ECOZONES, are VAT-exempt entities, not because of Section 24 of Rep. Act No. 7916, as amended, which imposes the five percent (5%) preferential tax rate on gross income of PEZA-registered enterprises, in lieu of all taxes; but, rather, because of Section 8 of the same statute which establishes the fiction that ECOZONES are foreign territory.

xxx An ECOZONE or a Special Economic Zone has been described as —

... [S]elected areas with highly developed or which have the potential to be developed into agro-industrial, industrial, tourist, recreational, commercial, banking, investment and financial centers whose metes and bounds are fixed or delimited by Presidential Proclamations. An ECOZONE may contain any or all of the following: industrial estates (IEs), export processing zones (EPZs), free trade zones and tourist/recreational centers. g

³¹ G.R. No. 150154, August 9, 2005.

The national territory of the Philippines outside of the proclaimed borders of the ECOZONE shall be referred to as the Customs Territory.

Section 8 of Rep. Act No. 7916, as amended, mandates that the PEZA shall manage and operate the ECOZONES as a separate customs territory; thus, creating the fiction that the ECOZONE is a foreign territory. As a result, sales made by a supplier in the Customs Territory to a purchaser in the ECOZONE shall be treated as an exportation from the Customs Territory. Conversely, sales made by a supplier from the ECOZONE to a purchaser in the Customs Territory shall be considered as an importation into the Customs Territory.

Given the preceding discussion, what would be the VAT implication of sales made by a supplier from the Customs Territory to an ECOZONE enterprise?

The Philippine VAT system adheres to the Cross Border Doctrine, according to which, no VAT shall be imposed to form part of the cost of goods destined for consumption outside of the territorial border of the taxing authority. Hence, actual export of goods and services from the Philippines to a foreign country must be free of VAT; while, those destined for use or consumption within the Philippines shall be imposed with ten percent (10%) VAT³²." (Emphasis supplied)

Evidently, sales of goods and services by a VAT-registered taxpayer, such as herein petitioner, to entities located in the Ecozones, as well as, to BOI-registered entities whose products are 100% exported are considered "export sales" subject to 0% VAT rate pursuant to Sections 106(A)(2)(a)(3), (5) and (c) and 108(B)(3) of the NIRC of 1997, as amended, and as implemented by Sections 4.106-5 and 4.108-5 of RR No. 16-05, as amended.

In its Quarterly VAT Return for the 1st quarter of FY 2014³⁶, petitioner reported total sales of ₱1,208,918,976.53, that included zero-rated sales in the amount of ₱260,115,930.50, to wit:

VATable Sales	₱ 932,114,519.60
Sale to Government	16,688,526.43
Zero-Rated Sales	260,115,930.50
Total Sales	₱1,208,918,976.53

In support of its declared zero-rated sales of ₱260,115,930.50, petitioner presented its Schedule of Zero-Rated Sales³⁷ and the related invoices and official receipts (ORs),³⁸ which were examined by the Court-commissioned ICPA, Mr. Neil U. Sison.

In his report, the ICPA ascertained that the sales in the amount of ₱212,860,730.90 qualify for VAT zero-rating, while the remaining amount of ₱47,255,199.60 does not qualify as zero-rated sales. The ICPA's findings are summarized as follows:³⁹

Less: Disallowances
Per ICPA report	₱ 11,390,208.54
Per Court's further verification	10,795,971.58	22,186,180.12
Total Valid Input VAT		₱ 86,892,747.20

Petitioner also maintains that from the total input taxes on current purchases and importations, the amounts of ₱4,061,978.62 and ₱1,208,528.19 are directly attributable to its VATable sales and sales to government, respectively, and thus, not included in the subject input VAT claim. However, considering that petitioner failed to identify from among the declared input VAT the specific input VAT directly attributable to such sales, it cannot be determined with certainty whether the same is already included in the valid or the disallowed input VAT. As such, the exclusion of the same from the subject amount of its claim shall be disregarded.

Considering further that petitioner is engaged in taxable sales subject to 0% and 12% rates, and its input VAT cannot be directly or per entirely attributed to any of the transactions, the valid input VAT of ₱86,892,747.20 shall be allocated proportionately on the basis of the volume of its sales. Thus:

VAT Sales to Private Entities (a)	Sales to Gov't (b)	Zero-Rated Sales (c)	Total Sales (d = a+b+c)
₱938,373,020.60 ⁴⁵	₱16,688,526.43	₱253,857,429.50 ⁴⁶	₱1,208,918,976.53
Substantiated Input VAT attributable to:
VAT Sales to private entities(a/d x ₱86,892,747.20)			₱ 67,446,877.12
Sales to Gov't (b/d x ₱86,892,747.20)			1,199,511.25
Zero-Rated Sales (c/d x ₱86,892,747.20)			18,246,358.83
Total			₱ 86,892,747.20

Sixth Requisite: Petitioner has no excess input VAT available for refund.

Having determined that petitioner had valid input VAT attributable to its zero-rated sales, the Court will now determine whether the same was not applied against its output VAT liability.

After deducting the input tax attributable to VATable sales to private entities in the amount of ₱67,446,877.12 from its output VAT liability of ₱112,604,762.47 from the said sales, petitioner still has a net output VAT payable of ₱45,157,885.35, as computed below:

Output VAT Per Return	₱ 111,853,742.35
Add: Adjustment of output tax on vatable sale treated as zero-rated sale (₱6,258,501.00 x 12%)	751,020.12
Adjusted Output VAT liability	112,604,762.47
Less: Input VAT attributable to VATable sales to private entities	67,446,877.12
Net Output VAT Payable	₱45,157,885.35

45

Amount per VAT Return	₱ 932,114,519.60
Add: Reported as zero-rated sales which should be declared as Vatable sales as found by the ICPA (Exh. P-78-Y)	6,258,501.00
Adjusted amount of VAT sales to private entities	₱938,373,020.60

46

Amount per VAT Return	₱ 260,115,930.50
Less: Reported as zero-rated sales which should be declared as Vatable sales as found by the ICPA (Exh. P-78-Y)	6,258,501.00
Adjusted amount of zero-rated sales	₱253,857,429.50

Considering that petitioner's input VAT attributable to VATable sales to private entities is not enough to cover its output VAT liability, the valid input VAT attributable to zero-rated sales shall be utilized against the remaining output VAT liability of ₱45,157,885.35. However, the input VAT attributable to zero-rated sales of ₱18,246,358.83 is significantly lower than the net output VAT payable of ₱45,157,885.35. Consequently, petitioner still has net output VAT due of ₱26,911,526.51, computed as follows:

Net Output VAT Payable	₱ 45,157,885.35
Less: Input VAT attributable to zero-rated sales	18,246,358.83
Net Output VAT Still Due	₱26,911,526.51

Petitioner posits that its input tax carried over from the previous period in the amount of ₱331,752,463.44 and the deferred tax on capital goods in excess of ₱1 million from previous quarters in the amount of ₱3,317,356.48 or the aggregate amount of ₱335,069,819.92 may be credited against its output tax due on its VATable sales for the instant period of claim.

However, the Court finds that although petitioner's Quarterly VAT return for the 1st quarter of FY 2014 reflected the amount of ₱331,752,463.44⁴⁷ as "Input Tax Carried Over from Previous Period", petitioner failed to fully substantiate the same.

Moreover, as can be gleaned from petitioner's Quarterly VAT Returns for the 2nd, 3rd and 4th quarters of FY 2013, petitioner declared total input VAT of ₱586,724,287.23, detailed as follows:

	2nd Quarter (Exh. P-78-AZ-1)	3rd Quarter (Exh. P-78-AZ-2)	4th Quarter (Exh. P-78-AZ-3)	Total
Input Tax Deferred on Capital Goods exceeding ₱1M from Previous Quarter	₱ 1,282,220.03	₱ 2,105,986.54	₱ 3,137,744.89	₱ 6,525,951.46
Add: Input Tax on Purchases of Capital Goods exceeding ₱1M during the quarter	924,196.39	1,187,255.47	374,827.01	2,486,278.87
Total	₱ 2,206,416.42	₱ 3,293,242.01	₱ 3,512,571.90	₱ 9,012,230.33
Less: Input Tax on Purchases of Capital Goods exceeding ₱1M deferred for the succeeding period	2,105,986.54	3,137,744.89	3,317,356.48	8,561,087.91
Amortized input VAT on purchase of capital goods exceeding ₱1M	₱ 100,429.88	₱ 155,497.12	₱ 195,215.42	₱ 451,142.42
Add: Current Input Taxes
On Domestic Purchase of goods other than Capital Goods	3,247,152.18	1,517,752.22	6,577,537.79	11,342,442.19
On Importation of Goods other than Capital Goods	192,547,254.30	215,598,702.19	147,311,862.44	555,457,818.93

⁴⁷ Docket (Vol. II), Exhibit "P-49", p. 1008, Line 20A.

On Domestic Purchase of Services	7,321,742.14	6,953,172.94	5,197,968.61	19,472,883.69
Total Input VAT for the period	₱203,216,578.50	₱ 224,225,124.47	₱159,282,584.26	₱586,724,287.23

In his report, the ICPA ascertained that out of the reported input VAT amount of ₱586,724,287.23, only the input VAT on importation in the amount of ₱406,653,353.92⁴⁸ was verified. Even assuming that the amount of ₱406,653,353.92 was valid input VAT attributable to VATable sales to private entities and zero-rated sales, still, the same is not enough to cover its reported output VAT on VATable sales to private entities for the same period in the aggregate amount of ₱466,422,198.30⁴⁹, thereby resulting in net output VAT payable of ₱59,768,844.38 (₱466,422,198.30 less ₱406,653,353.92). Needless to say, petitioner failed to prove that it has excess input VAT carried over from previous period.

Consequently, the input tax carry-over of ₱331,752,463.44, cannot be validly applied against petitioner's output tax pursuant to Section 110(A) in relation to Section 110(B) of the NIRC of 1997, as amended, to wit:

"SEC. 110. Tax Credits. –

(A) Creditable Input Tax. –

(1) Any input tax evidenced by a VAT invoice or official receipt issued in accordance with Section 113 hereof on the following transactions shall be creditable against the output tax:

(B) Excess Output or Input Tax. – If at the end of any taxable quarter the output tax exceeds the input tax, the excess shall be paid by the VAT-registered person. If the input tax exceeds the output tax, the excess shall be carried over to the succeeding quarter or quarters: Provided, however, that any input tax attributable to zero-rated sales by a VAT-registered person may at his option be refunded or credited against other internal revenue taxes, subject to the provisions of Section 112."⁵⁰ je

2nd Quarter (Exh. P-78-AZ-1)	₱ 84,819,335.25
3rd Quarter (Exh. P-78-AZ-2)	₱ 125,260,567.74
4th Quarter (Exh. P-78-AZ-3)	₱ 256,342,295.31
Total Output VAT on Vatable Sales-Private	₱466,422,198.30

⁵⁰ As amended by RA No. 9361, November 21, 2006.

Verily, in claiming excess or unutilized input VAT from zero-rated transactions, it is the excess over the output VAT which should be refunded to the taxpayer or credited against other internal revenue taxes. Hence, it is important for the taxpayer to prove that it has enough prior year's excess input VAT credits to cover its output VAT liability for the current taxable year. Consequently, there being no excess input VAT which may be the subject of a claim for refund or issuance of tax credit certificate, the instant claim must be denied.

It bears stressing that a claimant has the burden of proof to establish the factual basis of his or her claim for tax credit or refund.⁵¹ Tax refunds are in the nature of tax exemptions. As such, they are regarded as in derogation of sovereign authority and to be construed strictissimi juris against the person or entity claiming the refund.⁵² The pieces of evidence presented entitling a taxpayer to an exemption are also strictissimi scrutinized and must be duly proven.⁵³ Hence, an applicant for a claim for tax refund or tax credit must not only prove entitlement to the claim but also compliance with all the documentary and evidentiary requirements.⁵⁴

WHEREFORE, premises considered, the instant Petition for Review is DENIED for lack of merit.

SO ORDERED.
