

SECOND DIVISION

¹ Docket, pp. 71 to 73.

However, the Formal Entry of Appearance was deemed not filed for failure to email its pdf copy pursuant to the En Banc Resolution No. 8-2024.²

It is worthy to note that the Formal Entry of Appearance has no confirmation of accused Dela Cruz and she is still at-large.

Considering the foregoing, the Court is constrained not to act on the Motion to Dismiss (on the ground of Inordinate Delay).

On September 24, 2024,³ the prosecution received the Resolution dated August 30, 2024. Counting five days therefrom, the prosecution should have filed the subject annexes on September 30, 2024.⁴ Despite notice, the prosecution failed to comply with the said Resolution.⁵

Based on the foregoing, the Court finds the supporting documents on record insufficient to establish probable cause.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, the instant Information is DISMISSED without prejudice.

SO ORDERED.
