

IN THE MATTER OF PETITION AND FOR REGISTRATION AND ACCREDITATION OF
ULANGO IP ORG (UIO)
AS PARLIAMENTARY SECTORAL ORGANIZATION
ULANGO IP ORG (UIO)
REPRESENTED BY ITS
PRESIDENT, SUNSHINE PALADIN UGA

PETITION FOR REGISTRATION

1. The ULANGO IP ORG (UIO) is an organization representing the Indigenous Peoples (IP) sector, and its name is not confusingly similar to any registered political party or sectoral organization.
2. The principal office of the organization is located at Sitio Ulango, Barangay Labungan, Datu Odin Sinsuat, Maguindanao del Norte. It has the authority to establish provincial, city, and municipal chapters, as well as branches and divisions, as may be necessary to effectively carry out its mandate.
3. The organization was established on July 21, 2023, at its principal office in Datu Odin Sinsuat. ULANGO IP ORG is a recognized Indigenous community-based organization that supports early childhood development, particularly among Indigenous children aged 3–6 years old.

4. Since its establishment, the organization has been actively engaged in preserving Indigenous culture and promoting community development. It has established and continuously operates a School of Living Tradition (SLT), providing culturally grounded education for young Indigenous children.
5. The organization has also undertaken infrastructure development initiatives, including the successful construction of a tribal center in 2022, which now serves as its central hub for meetings, cultural activities, community dialogues, and capacity-building programs.
6. In addition, ULANGO IP ORG implements programs on sustainable livelihood and food security, alongside advocacy efforts focused on human rights education. Through these initiatives, the organization has demonstrated organizational strength and meaningful community impact, affirming its capacity for sectoral representation.
7. The organization adopts a democratic organizational structure composed of duly elected officers and such committees as may be necessary for its governance and operations. Officers are elected annually within thirty (30) days from the start of the calendar year, in accordance with its internal rules and procedures.
8. The names and addresses of its organizers, officers, and committee members are provided in the attached Annex "A."
9. The organization has an established constituency composed of Indigenous women community members, with an estimated membership of fifty (50) beneficiaries. It signifies its intent to participate in parliamentary sectoral representative elections in accordance with applicable laws, rules, and regulations.
10. The organization is not a religious sect or denomination and does not pursue its objectives through violence or unlawful means. It undertakes to uphold the Constitution and comply with all applicable laws, rules, and lawful orders.

11. It is an independent organization that does not receive financial support from, nor maintain any alliance with, any national political party. Likewise, it does not accept contributions from any foreign government or agency.
12. ULANGO has adopted its By-Laws and has an official logo representing its identity, ideals, and principles, copies of which are attached hereto as Annex "B." The organization shall also submit a certification from the appropriate ministry, office, or agency, which is attached hereto as Annex "C."
13. As a newly established entity, this is its first application for registration as a Political Sectoral Organization (PSO). It has not previously filed any application for registration nor been denied such registration. The organization likewise undertakes to submit such other material and relevant information as may be required by the Commission.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, premises considered, it is respectfully prayed that this Petition for Verification be GRANTED, and that ULANGO IP ORG be duly recognized and accredited as a Parliamentary Sectoral Organization.

Respectfully submitted this 26th day of March, 2026 at Cotabato City.

SUNSHINE PALADIN UGA
