The accused, DANILO P. CARIAGA , was charged in an Information which reads:

"The undersigned Prosecution Attorney of the Department of Justice hereby accuses DANILO P. CARIAGA of violating Section 255 of the National Internal Revenue Code, as amended, committed in the manner herein narrated, as follows:

'That on or about April 15, 2007 in Quezon City,

Court, the above-named accused, a self employed

329-287 filed with said revenue district office BIR Form
No. 1701, more commonly known as the Annual Income that he is required by the law and by the rules and willfully, unlawfully and feloniously failed to supply

Thousand Four Hundred Forty Two Pesos and Ninety Eight Centavos (P2,428,442.98) as payment of his Attorney's Fees for legal services rendered to Metropolitan Waterworks and Sewerage System covering the period January 2000 to April 2007, which willful failure to supply correct and accurate information resulted in the substantial under-declaration of sales and the payment of correct taxes in the amount of One Million Three Hundred Ninety Three Thousand Eight Hundred Fifty Nine Pesos and Eleven Centavos (P1,393,859.11)'.

CONTRARY TO LAW." (Emphasis supplied)

A perusal of the Information shows that it failed to allege that the amount of One Million Three Hundred Ninety Three Thousand Eight Hundred Fifty Nine Pesos and Eleven Centavos (P1,393,859.11) is exclusive of charges and penalties. However, the Joint Complaint-Affidavit attached to the letter of recommendation and approval for preliminary investigation and filing of appropriate information in Court by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Kim S. Jacinto-Henares, reveals that the amount of P1,393,859.11 consists of P625,048.93 as basic tax, P312,524.46 as surcharge and P456,285.72 as interest.

Section 7 (b) (1) of Republic Act No. 1125 otherwise known as "An Act Creating the Court of Tax Appeals", as amended¹, provides:

"Sec. 7. Jurisdiction. - The CTA shall exercise:

- a. xxx.
- b. Jurisdiction over cases involving criminal offenses as herein provided:
 1. Exclusive original jurisdiction over all criminal offenses arising from violations of the National Internal Revenue Code or Tariff and Customs Code and other laws administered by the Bureau of Internal Revenue or the

¹ Republic Act. No. 9282 "AN ACT EXPANDING THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURT OF TAX APPEALS (CTA), ELEVATING ITS RANK TO THE LEVEL OF A COLLEGIATE COURT WITH SPECIAL JURISDICTION AND ENLARGING ITS MEMBERSHIP, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE CERTAIN SECTIONS OF REPUBLIC ACT NO. 1125, AS AMENDED, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE LAW CREATING THE COURT OF TAX APPEALS, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES"

Bureau of Customs: Provided, however, That offenses or felonies mentioned in this paragraph where the principal amount of taxes and fees, exclusive of charges and penalties, claimed is less than One million pesos (P1,000,000.00) or where there is no specified amount claimed shall be tried by the regular Courts and the jurisdiction of the CTA shall be appellate. xxx.”
(Emphasis supplied)

Pursuant to the above provision, and considering that the principal amount of taxes exclusive of charges and penalties is less than One Million Pesos (P1,000,000.00), since the alleged amount of P1,393,859.11 consists of P625,048.93 as basic tax, P312,524.46 as surcharge and P456,285.72 as interest, the CTA has no jurisdiction over the charge, jurisdiction being vested with the regular Courts.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, the instant case is hereby DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction, without prejudice to filing the same in the proper forum.

SO ORDERED.
