DECISION

This is a Judicial claim for refund of the sum of P355,436.40 allegedly representing 25% of the specific taxes collected on various oils and fuels which it purchased from Caltex (Philippines), Inc., during the period from November 1980 to September 1982, actually used in connection with the exploitation and operation of its forest concession.

The records show that petitioner is a domestic corporation duly licensed to operate a forest concession with timber licensed duly issued by the then Ministry of Natural Resources. It has authority to cut, collect and remove timber from its forest concession area located in Zamboanga del Norte and Zamboanga City (Exhs. "A", "A-1").

During the period from November 1980 to September 1982, petitioner purchased from Caltex (Philippines), Inc., various quantities of refined and manufactured mineral oils, motor fuel, and diesel fuel oils (T.S.N. dated June 21, 1985 p. 61, Exhs. "B" to "N-1" to "Z-51", "AA" to "DD-44", "F", "F-1") which petitioner actually and exclusively used in connection with the exploitation and operation of its forest concession. Said oil company paid and passed on to petitioner the specific taxes imposed under Sections 153 and 154 of the 1977 Tax Code on refined and manufactured mineral oils, motor fuels and diesel fuel oil that the oil company supplied to petitioner.

On January 19, 1983, petitioner filed with respondent a claim for refund in the amount of P355,436.40 computed as follows:

representing twenty five percent (25%) of the specific taxes collected on the oils used by the petitioner in its operation as a lumber concessionaire.

Without waiting for respondent's decision, petitioner filed the petition for review before this Court on February 8, 1983, praying for an order requiring respondent to pay 20% interest per annum in addition to its claim for refund, for the alleged arbitrary refusal to refund the instant claim. Petitioner likewise prayed for the cost of suit.

In support of its claim for refund petitioner relied on the case of Insular Lumber Co. v. Court of Tax Appeals and Commissioner of Internal Revenue, G.R. No. L-31057, May 29, 1981 where the Supreme Court held that the proviso of Section 5 of Republic Act No. 1435 is in effect a partial exemption from the imposed increased specific tax on manufactured oils.

Section 5 of Republic Act NO. 1435 provides:

"SEC. 5 The proceeds of the additional tax on manufactured oils shall accrue to the road and bridge funds of the political subdivision for whose benefit the tax is collected: Provided, however, That whenever any oils mentioned above are used by miners or forest concessionaires in their operations, twenty-five per centum of the specific tax paid thereon shall be refunded by the Collector of Internal Revenue upon submission of proof of actual use of oils and under similar conditions enumerated in sub-paragraphs one and two of section one hereof, amending section one hundred forty-two of the Internal Revenue Code: Provided, further That no new road shall be constructed unless the routes or location thereof shall have been approved by the Commissioner of Public Highways after a determination that such road can be made part of an integral and articulated route in the Philippine Highway System, as required in section twenty-six of the Philippine Highway Act of 1953."

Respondent, however, asserted that the above section of R.A. No. 1435 has already been repealed by Section 343 of the NIRC of 1977 (P.D. Nos. 1158 and 1158-A) which provides in part:

"SEC. 343 Granting provinces, cities and municipalities shares in the specific tax on certain petroleum products. - In addition to the internal revenue allotment under Section three hundred forty-four, provinces, cities and municipalities shall share in the specific taxes on the following petroleum products in such amount as may be equivalent to the collections therefrom at the rates indicated hereunder:

xxx

The additional allotment is in lieu of local taxes imposed on petroleum products and for this purpose, Section twenty-four of Presidential Decree numbered 231, otherwise known as the Local Tax Code, has been repealed by Presidential Decree numbered 436 on March 30, 1974.

Respondent further argued that petitioner's right to claim for a partial refund of specific taxes paid prior to February 8, 1981 had already prescribed. And finally he claimed that the government cannot be made to pay interest in the absence of any statutory provision authorizing such payment. (Collector of Internal Revenue v. St. Paul's Hospital of Iloilo, G.R. No. 612127, May 25, 1959 (105 Phil. 1319); The Marine Trading Co. Inc., v. Government of the Philippine Island, G.R. No. 13422, November 8, 1918 (39 Phil. 29); Gregoria Sarasola v. Wenceslao Trinidad, Collector of Internal Revenue of the Philippine Island, G.R. No. L-14595 October 11, 1919 (40 Phil. 252). Neither can the cost of suits be imposed on the government. [Section 1 Rule 142, Rules of Court; Collector of Internal Revenue v. Convention of Phil. Baptist Church and the Court of Tax Appeals, G.R. No. L-11807, May 19, 1961 (2 SCRA 10)].

Respondent opted not to offer any evidence there being no dispute on the material facts. Instead, he submitted the case for decision on a purely legal question.

The basic issues therefore, boil down to:

1. Whether or not the privilege of a 25% refund of specific taxes paid on manufactured oils used in petitioner's forest concession as provided under Section 5 of Republic Act No. 1435 still subsists; and

2. In the affirmative, whether or not petitioner is entitled to the total amount sought for.

DECISION -
C.T.A. Case No. 3582

We find for the petitioner.

In the case of Commissioner of Internal Revenue v. Atlas Consolidated Mining and Development Corporation, et. al., G.R. No. L-93631 November 12, 1990, the Supreme Court, in a Resolution by the Third Division, ruled that "the purpose for the increase in the rate of tax cannot in anyway negate the policy behind the grant of partial refund. The Court sees no inconsistency between the increase in specific tax rates and the retention of the refund privilege. In fact, with the increased specific tax rates, the grant of partial refund to mining and lumber concessionaires is made more imperative considering that they seldom use the highways, the construction of which are financed by specific taxes."

On the argument of respondent that petitioner is entitled to a refund only if the additional specific taxes imposed by the municipalities and cities concerned have been paid, he pointed out that there is no such ordinance imposing an additional specific tax to miners and forest concessionaires. Hence, no refund could be availed of as perceived from a reading of the provisions of Sections 4 and 5 of Republic Act 1435.

In this connection, we find fitting the following comments of the Supreme Court in the case of Commissioner of Internal Revenue v. Atlas Consolidated Mining and Development Corp. et al., (supra)

DECISION -
C.T.A. Case No. 3582

"A reading of the legislative proceedings leading to the enactment of RA 1435 shows that mining and lumber concessionaires were granted partial refund of specific taxes because the gasoline and fuel they consume is mostly used within their own compounds and roads. RA 1435 gave these concessionaires relief, in the form of a tax refund, since their trucks and vehicles seldom ply the national highways, the construction of which is funded by the specific tax collected by the national government. There is therefore no rationale in conditioning the grant of refund on the payment of these mining or lumber concessionaires of any additional local tax.

Moreover, Section 5 states 'that the 25% specific tax shall be refunded by the Collector of Internal Revenue.' Since it is the latter who collects the specific taxes due to the national government, then it follows that the refund refers to a refund of the specific taxes paid to the national government, not the specific taxes paid to the local government."

And in the more recent case of Commissioner of Internal Revenue v. Rio Tuba Nickel Mining Corporation and Court of Tax Appeals, G.R. Nos. 8358384, September 30, 1991 (202 SCRA 137), The Supreme Court Third Division held: "(t)o our mind, the proviso in Section 5 standing alone is enough basis for the grant of refund. xxx. In fact, the entire proviso of Section 5 does not even make any reference to Section 4 which empowers municipalities and cities to impose the additional tax on oils sold or distributed within their territorial jurisdiction. What is clear therein is that the Revenue Commissioner shall refund 25% of the specific tax whenever any oils mentioned above are used by miners or forest concessionaires in their operations and the procedure for refund is complied with."

Finding for petitioner, the only thing left for the Court's determination is the amount of specific taxes to be refunded by respondent in favor of petitioner Curuan Timber Corporation.

As indicated earlier, Petitioner claimed that it is entitled to the 25% partial refund of specific taxes paid from its purchase of various refined and manufactured mineral oils, motor fuel oils, diesel oil and lubricating oils from November 1980 to September 1982 in the total amount of P355,436.40.

On the other hand respondent insisted, assuming arguendo, that the privilege of partial refund of specific tax still subsists, petitioner's claim for refund of said taxes paid from February 8, 1981 has already prescribed, the petition for review having been filed only on February 8, 1983. Further, the claim for partial refund on specific tax paid after September 1982 should likewise be denied as the same is not subject to application for administrative refund nor is it the subject matter of the judicial action.

In this connection, we are adopting our ruling in the case of Aras-Asan Timber Co., Inc. v. Commissioner of Internal Revenue, CTA Case No.. 3524, December 17, 1993, where we followed Section 135 of the Tax Code insofar as applicable in the computation of the prescriptive period to recover excess payment of the tax, to wit:

"The Tax Code provides for the judicial remedy of filing a claim for refund within a period of two (2) years from the date of payment of the tax pursuant to the provision of Section 230 (formerly Section 292).

Section 135 of the Tax Code insofar as pertinent provides 'that specific taxes on locally manufactured petroleum products levied under Section 153, 155 and 156 of this title, except lubricating oil and grease, shall paid within fifteen (15) days from the date of removal thereof from the place of production.'

It is therefore evident that the manufacturer of petroleum products has up to 15 days from the date of its removal within which to pay the specific taxes on locally manufactured petroleum products. As an exception, manufacturers of lubricating oil and grease have to pay the specific tax collected from the purchases on the date of its removal from the place of production."

The court after examining the invoices offered by petitioner as evidence, arrived at the following computations on the refundable 25% taxes paid on Diesel and Regular Gasoline, from February 24, 1981 to September

Original Claim
for Refund : November 1980 to September 1982

Case filed with
C.T.A. : February 8, 1983

Counting for the 2-year period should start:

1. In case of lubricants - February 8, 1981
2. Other than lubricants - February 24, 1981

Thus purchases of lubricating oils from November 1980 to February 7, 1981 and purchases of manufactured oils other than lubricants from November 1980 to January 23, 1981 have already prescribed. (Exhs. "H-1" to "H-47", "I-1" to "J-26", "J-28", "J-29", "J-33", "J-45", "K-1", "K-28", "K-31" and "K-33".

Petitioner originally claimed for refund of the specific tax on manufactured oils from November 1980 to September 1982. However, in counting the prescriptive period, the date of filing with the court should be controlling.

The Resolution of the Supreme Court dated March 25, 1992 in the Rio Tuba Case (SUPRA) stated that the claim for refund of specific taxes should be computed on the basis of the amounts deemed paid under Section 1 and 2 of R.A. No. 1435, without interest.

"SECTION 1. Section one hundred and forty two of the National Internal Revenue Code, as amended, is further amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 142. Specific Tax on manufactured oils and other fuel.- On refined and manufactured mineral oils and motor fuels, there shall be collected the following taxes:

(a) xxx xxx xxx

(b) Lubricating oils, per liter of volume capacity, seven centavos;

(c) Naphtha, gasoline, and all other similar products of distillation, per liter of volume capacity, eight centavos; and

(d) xxx xxx xxx

"SEC. 2. Section one hundred and forty-five of the National Internal Revenue Code, as amended, is further amended to read as follows:

SEC. 145. Specific Tax on Diesel fuel oil. - On fuel oil, commercially known as diesel fuel oil, and on all similar fuel oils, having more or less the same generating power, there shall be collected, per metric ton, one peso."

With respect to the amount refundable on purchases of diesel and Bunker fuel oils, both parties agreed and arrived at a formula in converting liters of diesel to metric tons. The base for computing the amount refundable for specific taxes paid on diesel should be what is prescribed in Section 2 of R.A. No. 1435. The formula to convert liters to metric tons of diesel fuel as agreed upon by the parties is:

$$\frac{\text{No. liters} \times \text{specific gravity}}{1,000} = \text{Metric Ton}$$

It was further agreed that the specific gravity of diesel is 0.8429.

Thus, the total number of liters of diesel subject to refund is 1,643,200 equivalent to 1,385 metric tons computed as follows:

$$\frac{1,643,200 \times 0.8429}{1,000} = 1,286 \text{ metric ton of diesel}$$

After having converted the liters of diesel to metric tons the Court can now compute the amount to which petitioner is entitled to be refunded on the specific taxes paid on the use of lubricating oils, regular gasoline, extra gasoline and kerosene purchased for the period February 24, 1981 to September 30, 1982. Petitioner is therefore entitled to be refunded in the amount of P21,997.17 computed as follows:

Regarding the 20% interest per annum being claimed by petitioner, the rule is that no interest on refund of tax can be awarded unless authorized by the law or the collection of the tax was attended by arbitrariness (Collector v. Prieto, 112 phil 907; Commissioner v. Astureas Sugar Central, 2 SCRA 1140; Commissioner of Internal Revenue v. American Rubber Co., 18 SCRA 842; Atlas Fertilizer Corporation v. Commissioner of Internal Revenue, 100 SCRA 556; Shell Philippines, Inc., v. Central Bank of the Philippines, 162 SCRA 288.) An action is not arbitrary when exercised honestly and upon due consideration where there is a room for two opinions, however it may be believed that an erroneous conclusion was reached. (F.B. Moreno, Philippines law Dictionary [3rd edition] p. 69, citing Imperial Development Corporation v. Añover, 08473-hP. August 23, 1979)

Arbitrariness presupposes excusable or obstinate, disregard of legal provision' (Victoria's Milling Co.
Inc., v. Commissioner of Internal Revenue, et. al., 19 SCRA 430) none of the exceptions are present in the instant case. Respondent's decision denying Petitioner's claim for refund was based on an honest interpretation of law. Petitioner is not entitled to the payment of interest.

MOREOVER, the Supreme Court held in the Rio Tuba case that no interest shall be charged in computing the 25% refund of specific taxes paid. (See Supreme Court Resolution dated March 25, 1992).

In the same manner petitioner's prayer for costs of suit cannot be granted. It is an elementary rule that the government shall not be liable for cost of suits unless otherwise provided by law. (Section 1, Rule 142. Revised Rules of Court; Collector of Internal Revenue v.
Convention of the Philippine Baptist churches and the Court of Tax Appeals, 2 SCRA 10.)

WHEREFORE, the respondent Commissioner of Internal Revenue is hereby ordered to REFUND to Petitioner, CURUAN TIMBER CORPORATION the sum of P21,997.17, without interest, equivalent to 25% partial refund of specific
